

"NOT ONE MORE BOMB!"

THE STRUGGLE FOR PEACE AND HUMAN RIGHTS IN VIEQUES

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2001

6:30 to 8:30 pm

Center for Hawaiian Studies, Hālau o Haumea
2645 Dole Street

SPEAKERS:

- NILDA MEDINA, Committee for the Rescue and Development of Vieques
- WANDA COLON CORTEZ, Coordinator of the Caribbean Project for Justice and Peace

A movement leader from Vieques and a Puerto Rican peace and justice activist will discuss the impacts of military exercises in Vieques and how Vieques residents are organizing to defend their land, their health and their community. Explore the relationship between Vieques, Kaho'olawe and Mākua.

Sponsored by American Friends Service Committee - Hawai'i Demilitarization Program, 'Ohana Koa / Nuclear Free & Independent Pacific, Hawai'i People's Fund and the Center for Hawaiian Studies. For more information contact 988-6266.